Praise Accompaniment/Instrumental Tracks Collection 2

WORSHIP WAREHOUSE is a praise & worship singalong resource which can be used for personal devotions, instrumental listening throughout the day, and a solution for times when your fellowship group or Church want to sing but no musicians are available. Each track features an audio cue so singers know when to start, and a strong melody line making the tune easy to follow.

This album provides 50 songs arranged in nine thoughtful worship sets which have been created to help you use this resource with small groups without further work.

Worship Warehouse resources are ideal for mid-week meetings, bible study and prayer groups, or whole church gatherings.

Full Singalong Lyrics are available to download from:
www.foxrecords.co.uk/sheetmusic.

If you wish to use these lyrics for anything other than personal use, for example photocopying for a church service or group meeting, then the permission of the publisher is needed. This permission is covered by the Church Copyright License available from Church Copyright Licensing International (ccli). Please consult your church administrator, or see www.ccli.com for more information. It is possible that your church or fellowship group already has such a license.
